DETAILED ACTION

The examiner acknowledges the amendments made in document filed March 21, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weisner et al. US Patent Number 5,262,944 A in view of Schoenberg et al. US Patent Number 6,322,502 B1.

See previous office action for details of the rejection and response to arguments below for the details of the rejection.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 21, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant's amended claims 1-2, which included "at least one other of the plurality of patients" and "wherein the bedside monitor is directly connected to vital sign measurement devices for said one of a plurality of patients."

Firstly, "simultaneously displaying, in the first display section, parameter values of a plurality of sets of vital signs measured for at least one other of the plurality of patients respectively” is clearly shown by Weisner et al. Each ICU of numbered 101-108 is a section. Thus the reference teaches eight display sections.

Secondly, the term “directly connected” within the amended limitation “wherein the bedside monitor is directly connected to vital sign measurement devices for said one of a plurality of patients,” it is not defined in the specification and thus it is given its broadest reasonable interpretation. As such, the broadest reasonable interpretation of “directly connected” includes Weisner et al. wherein the central station (20) is used as a bedside monitor where the vital sign measurement devices 24, 26, 28 (figure 2) are directly connected to the central station via monitors 10, 12, and 18.

It is the examiner belief that the applicant can overcome the rejection by amending the claim to state, “disposing the bedside monitor at a bedside of two or more of a plurality of patients...”

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-8 are allowed over the prior art.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3736
